

Imperial Society of Teachers of Dancing

Job Profile - Examinations Officer

Company Summary

The Imperial Society of Teachers of Dancing (ISTD) is a registered educational charity and membership association. Our mission is to educate the public in the art of dancing in all its forms: to promote knowledge of dance; provide up-to-date techniques for members and maintain and improve teaching standards.

With approximately 6,000 members in over 55 countries worldwide, the Society conducts over 120,000 examinations each year. We were recently listed by Ofqual as one of the top 20 largest awarding organisations in England and in the top 5 for delivery of performing arts examinations.

The Society aspires to be a world leader in dance education, setting the benchmark for best practice through our extensive syllabi and teacher training. We are committed to becoming a dynamic, future-focused organisation that promotes the social, cultural, physical and educational benefits of dance for all.

Summary of Role

We are looking for an Examinations Officer to provide a wide range of professional and efficient administrative services in support of Dance Examinations both online and live.

The job's focus is working within a team to assist with processing, planning, preparation, organising, co-ordinating and supporting Dance Examinations. The role will also involve communicating on a regular basis with examiners and members to provide support, guidance and help using the ISTD internal system.

This role will report directly to the Head of UK Examinations.

Key Responsibilities:

In addition to working closely with the Head of UK Examinations to assist with administration as and when required, the Examinations Officer will also be responsible for the following areas.

- Manage the examination process from application to delivery following company policies and syllabus requirements, including the verification of the membership status, candidate eligibility and accuracy of details on the online exam management systems within strict deadlines.
- Manage the examiner allocation and organisational process of the examination session. Proactively handle any arising issues and complications as needed.
- Maintain accurate records ensuring compliance with GDPR and ensure exam fees are received correctly within set deadlines.

Imperial Society of Teachers of Dancing

- Act as the primary point of contact for examiners and Members, handle enquiries in a professional manner, and provide support with the use of the online exam management systems.
- Collaborate with other ISTD departments and the Faculties as required, for example, to arrange sitting in sessions, examiner upgrading and ongoing monitoring of international examiners.
- Work flexibly and provide support to other operational areas/colleagues as required and carry out any other reasonable duties as required by the Head of Department or Executive Management.

Person Specification

To take up the role of Examinations Officer, the individual will need to be engaged and motivated in the work and mission of the Society.

The Examinations Officer must demonstrate:

- A commitment to fairness and to promoting equality, diversity and inclusion.
- A wholehearted commitment to the mission of the Society.
- Knowledge of and an interest in dance education and training and the wider dance arts environment.
- A willingness to contribute ideas, thoughts, comments.
- Excellent verbal and written communications skills in English.
- Proven experience of developing and managing complex procedures in a fast paced, high volume office environment.
- Commitment to a high standard of customer service, with excellent interpersonal skills and confidence in dealing with enquires from internal and external contacts. Excellent organisational skills, coupled with the ability to multi-task, prioritise, remain calm under pressure, and see tasks through to completion whilst demonstrating accuracy and strict attention to detail. Critical thinking and good analytical problem solving skills to support effective decision making.
- Excellent team player, working flexibly and with others to meet the needs of Members, customers and the organisation.
- Sound IT skills with good working knowledge of Microsoft Office, aptitude towards online management systems.
- Attitude of personal responsibility and accountability and a flexible, 'can-do' attitude towards the workplace
- Ability to maintain confidentiality and GDPR data protection legislation requirements.
- Experience of working with and/or a willingness and capacity to learn, a range of current online tools to support the role eg. Microsoft Teams, Zoom and other online systems.

Advantage

- Educated to degree level or equivalent.
- Experience of travel or event management.
